Dear

This letter responds to a letter dated February 18, 2005, submitted on behalf of X by its authorized representative, requesting relief under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code for X to be an S corporation and requesting an extension of time under § 301.9100-3 of the Procedure and Administration Regulations for X to elect to treat Y and Z as qualified subchapter S subsidiaries (QSubs).

The information submitted states that A, the president of X, represents that X intended to elect to be an S corporation effective Date 1. Additionally, X intended to make QSub elections for Y and Z effective Date 1. However, the Service has no record of a timely filed Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation, effective Date 1. Furthermore, valid QSub elections were not made with respect to Y and Z.

Section 1362(a) provides that a small business corporation can elect to be treated as an S corporation.

Section 1362(b) provides the rule on when an S election becomes effective. If an S election is made within the first two and one-half months of a corporation's taxable year, then that corporation will be treated as an S corporation for the year in which the election was made. If an election is made after the first two and one-half months of a corporation's taxable year, then the corporation will generally not be treated as an S corporation until the following taxable year.

Section 1362(b)(5) provides that if no election is made pursuant to § 1362(a), or if the election is made after the date prescribed for making such an election, and the Secretary determines reasonable cause existed for the failure to timely make the election, then the Secretary can treat such an election as timely made for that taxable year and effective as of the first day of that taxable year.

Section 1361(b)(3)(A) provides that a QSub shall not be treated as a separate corporation, and all assets, liabilities, and items of income, deduction, and credit of a QSub shall be treated as assets, liabilities, and such items (as the case may be) of the S corporation.

Section 1361(b)(3)(B) defines a QSub as a domestic corporation, which is not an ineligible corporation, in which 100 percent of the stock of the corporation is owned by an S corporation, and the S corporation elects to treat the corporation as a QSub.

Section 1.1361-3(a) of the Income Tax Regulations provides the time and manner of making a QSub election. A taxpayer makes a QSub election with respect to a subsidiary by filing a Form 8869, Qualified Subchapter S Subsidiary Election, with the appropriate service center.

Section 301.9100-1(c) gives the Commissioner discretion to grant reasonable extensions of time to make regulatory elections under the rules of §§ 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3. Under § 301.9100-1(b), a regulatory election includes an election whose due date is prescribed by a regulation published in the Federal Register.

Section 301.9100-3 sets forth the standards that the Commissioner uses to determine whether to grant a discretionary extension of time. These standards indicate that the Commissioner should grant relief when the taxpayer provides evidence proving to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the Government.

Based solely on the facts submitted and the representations made, we conclude that X has established reasonable cause for failing to make a timely election to be an S corporation. Accordingly, provided that X makes an election to be an S corporation by filing a completed Form 2553 effective Date 1 with the appropriate service center within 60 days from the date of this letter, then such election will be treated as timely made for Date 1. A copy of this letter should be attached to that form.

Additionally, based solely on the facts submitted and the representations made, we conclude that X has satisfied the requirements of §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3. As a result, X is granted an extension of time of 60 days from the date of this letter to elect to treat Y and Z as QSubs effective Date 1. Accordingly, provided that X makes the above-mentioned S election and makes QSub elections for Y and Z by filing a completed Form 8869 effective Date 1 with the appropriate service center within 60 days from the date of this letter, then such elections will be treated as timely made for Date 1. A copy of this letter should be attached to the Forms 8869.

Except as expressly provided herein, no opinion is expressed or implied concerning the tax consequences of any aspect of any transaction or item discussed or referenced in this letter. In particular, no opinion is expressed concerning whether X is or was a small business corporation or whether Y and Z are or were eligible to be QSubs.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Pursuant to the power of attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being sent to X's authorized representatives.

Sincerely,

Heather C. Maloy
Associate Chief Counsel
