PART II

Tax Year 2002 Filing Season Information

IRS e-file Program Updates for Tax Year 2002

ERO Record Keeping Requirements

Electronic Return Originators (ERO) may electronically image and store all paper records they are required to retain. This includes signed Forms 8453 and paper copies of Forms W-2, W-2G, and 1099-R as well as any supporting documents not included in the electronic record and Forms 8879 and 8878. The storage system must satisfy the requirements of Revenue Procedure 97-22, Retention of Books and Records. In brief, Revenue Procedure 97-22 requires the electronic storage system ensure an accurate and complete transfer of the hard copy or computerized records to electronic storage media. In addition, all records reproduced by the electronic storage system must exhibit a high degree of legibility and readability (including the taxpayer's signature) when displayed on a video display terminal and when reproduced in hard copy.

Electronic Signatures

Most e-filers have the option to electronically sign their individual income tax returns using a Personal Identification Number (PIN). Successful transmission of a taxpayer's PIN replaces the requirement to submit one of the following signature forms:

- Form 8453, U.S. Individual Income Tax Declaration for e-file Return, if using a tax professional.
- Form 8453-OL, U.S. Individual Income Tax Declaration for an IRS e-file On-Line Return, if using a personal computer to file a return.

Self-Select PIN

The Self-Select PIN method allows taxpayers to electronically sign their e-file returns by entering a five-digit PIN. The five-digit PIN can be any five numbers except all zeroes. Receipt of the taxpayer's PIN eliminates the requirement for Form 8453 or Form 8453-OL. The Self-Select PIN method requires the entry of each taxpayer's Date of Birth and Prior Year original Adjusted Gross Income which are used to authenticate the taxpayer.

The following taxpayers are eligible to use the Self-Select PIN:

- Taxpayers who filed Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ or TeleFile for Tax Year 2001.
- Taxpayers who filed Form 1040-PR for TY 2001, who are eligible to file Form 1040 for Tax Year 2002.
- Taxpayers who did not file for Tax Year 2001, but have filed previously.

- Taxpayers who are 16 or older on or before December 31, 2002, who have never filed a tax return.
- Taxpayers under age 16, filing as Primary Taxpayers, who have filed previously.
- Taxpayers under age 16, filing as Secondary Taxpayers (spouse), who filed in the immediate prior year.
- Military personnel residing overseas with APO/FPO addresses.
- Taxpayers residing in the American Possessions of the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, America Samoa, Guam and Northern Marianas, or with foreign country addresses.
- Taxpayers filing Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return; Form 2688, Application for Additional Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return; or Form 2350, Application for Extension of Time to File U.S. Income Tax Return.
- Those who are filing on behalf of deceased taxpayers.

The following taxpayers are NOT eligible to use the Self-Select PIN:

- Primary Taxpayers under age 16 that have never filed.
- Secondary Taxpayers under age 16 that did not file in the immediate prior year.
- Taxpayers who filed Forms 1040-NR or 1040-SS for Tax Year 2001
- Taxpayers required to file the following Forms:
 - Form 3115, Application for Change in Accounting Method
 - Form 5713, International Boycott Report
 - Form 8283, Non-Cash Charitable Contributions (if using Part B)
 - Form 8332, Release of Claim to Exemption for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents
 - Form 8609, Low-Income Housing Credit Allocation Certification

Practitioner PIN

The Practitioner PIN method offers another signature option for ERO's use in preparing and transmitting Forms 1040/A/EZ to IRS. This method also allows taxpayers to sign their return using a five-digit PIN they select; however, it does not require entry of the taxpayer authentication information (i.e. Date of Birth and Prior Year original Adjusted Gross Income). Receipt of the taxpayer's PIN by IRS eliminates the need for individuals to sign a Form 8453. The ERO must complete Form 8879, IRS e-file Signature Authorization, including Part III, for each return that is prepared using this method.

This program was previously limited to Electronic Return Originators (ERO) who had an agreement to participate in the program; however, beginning in PY 2003 the Practitioner PIN is open to all EROs (no agreement is required).

First time filers and taxpayers under age 16 are eligible to use the Practitioner PIN.

IRS e-file Signature Authorization

The IRS e-file signature authorization forms listed below have been revised for tax year 2002.

- Form 8879, IRS e-file Signature Authorization, (for use with Form 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ returns) and
- Form 8878, IRS e-file Signature Authorization for Application for Extension of Time to File (for use with applications for an extension of time to file)

Form 8879 must be completed by the taxpayer and the ERO when:

- The taxpayer wants to authorize the ERO to enter the taxpayer's Personal Identification Number (PIN) as the taxpayer's signature on the electronic income tax return and, if applicable, the Electronic Funds Withdrawal, or
- The ERO is filing the return using the Practitioner PIN method, even if the taxpayer(s) signs the return with his or her own PIN. (Part III of Form 8879 must be completed.)

Form 8878 must be completed by the taxpayer and the ERO when the taxpayer wants to authorize the ERO to enter the taxpayer's PIN as the taxpayer's signature on an application for an extension of time to file and, if applicable, the Electronic Funds Withdrawal.

Important reminders for EROs

- Check the Acknowledgment File to ensure taxpayer PINs were accepted
- Do not submit Forms 8879 or 8878 to IRS unless requested to do so.

QuickAlerts

The QuickAlerts messaging system has been expanded to include all Authorized IRS e-file Providers, including Electronic Return Originators, who subscribe. The free web-based service uses "push technology" to quickly issue information to subscribers via their choice of email, fax, telephone or cell-phone anytime, AM or PM Monday through Sunday. New subscribers may sign up at www.Envoyprofiles.com/Quickalerts or at the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

Foreign Employer Compensation (FEC) Record

To ensure accurate returns and valid claims for refunds, the Internal Revenue Service continues to require that EROs receive Forms W-2 from taxpayers prior to the origination of the submission of the electronic return. However, many taxpayers working overseas or domestically for a foreign company do not receive Forms W-2 because their foreign employers do not issue them. To extend the capability to file electronically to these taxpayers whose compensation is paid by a foreign entity, an electronic Foreign Employer Compensation Record will be accepted in lieu of Form W-2 information. The literal "FEC" will be indicated to enable wage amount(s) received from foreign employers to be included in the compensation total reported on Line 7, Form 1040 or 1040A, or Line 1, Form 1040EZ. Supporting information regarding the identity of the employee of the foreign employer, the location at which the employee resided, the name and address of the foreign employer, and the amount of compensation received must be provided on the Foreign Employer Compensation (FEC) Record. Returns both reporting Foreign Employer Compensation and claiming Earned Income Credit will not be accepted electronically.

STCGL/LTCGL Records

"STCGL" is the Short Term Capital Gains or Losses Record and "LTCGL" is the Long Term Capital Gains or Losses Record. Each record is considered a separate transaction. These transaction records are used when there is a need to transmit five or more transactions with an electronically filed return. (Use the Schedule D to report four or less for short term and long term transactions.) Each Schedule D and/or F8865 occurrence may have up to 5000 transaction records (i.e., 5000 short term and 5000 long term). See Publication 1346, for more details.

Decedent Returns

IRS e-file is now accepting decedent returns (i.e., Forms 1040/1040A/1040EZ). A Personal Representative can also e-file Form 1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, with a decedent's return. The death certificate is NOT required as an attachment, but must be kept for tax records. A zero/ even balance or a balance due decedent return is also accepted. Taxpayers can use either the Practitioner PIN or the Self-Select PIN electronic signature, with the decedent's return, as well as use Form 8453.

Business Tax Returns

Beginning January 6, 2003, business tax professionals who file Employment Tax Returns (940 and 941 family returns) will be able to file these forms electronically as an ERO. These business EROs are subject to the rules and responsibilities as outlined by Publication 1345, Handbook for Authorized IRS e-file Providers of Individual Income Tax Returns and Revenue Procedure 2000-31. Specific information on the electronic filing of Employment Tax Returns is provided in Publication 3823, Users' Guide for Filing Form 94x XML. This Publication is available electronically at www.irs.gov.

The Employment Tax e-file System for the filing of 940 and 941 family returns will offer its users the ability to:

- Electronically file and pay tax obligations at the same time
- Mix form types within a transmission
- Receive acknowledgements faster by eliminating “drains”
- Receive easily understood error condition codes which will point to location of error and simply state the error
- Allow paid tax preparers, EROs, payroll service providers, and other tax professional to file returns electronically
- Allow business taxpayers to file their own return using their computer, modem and commercial off-the-shelf or web-based tax preparation software that supports e-file for 94x returns
- Sign returns using a Personal Identification Number (PIN) as the taxpayer’s signature – eliminating the need for paper
- Develop software using Extensible Markup Language (XML) the established standard language for all new e-file forms (Forms 1120 and 990 in XML to be offered soon)

For more information on the new Employment Tax Employment System, visit www.irs.gov.

Federal/State Electronic Filing

There are two changes to Federal/State electronic filing in 2003. IRS e-file will be accepting Federal/State e-file returns with Foreign Addresses, including the U.S. possessions of American Samoa, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Additionally, taxpayers have the choice of filing a State Return without the regular Form 1040 under the following instances:

- Previously rejected state e-file return
- State return input separately from Federal return

- Part-year resident state return
- Multiple state returns for one taxpayer
- Non-resident state returns
- Married filing separately with state, but filing jointly with Federal State-Only return data will contain a Form 1040, page one record, state return packet, and a Summary record. The State Abbreviation of the Form 1040 (Sequence #0087) must contain the value "SO", indicating that: (1) State-Only return data is attached, (2) State-Only processing will be performed, and (3) Form 1040, page two and foreign 1040 processing will be bypassed.

IRS e-file Application

A new electronic e-file Application is coming in early fall 2003! Currently, tax professionals who wish to file individual income tax returns electronically complete Form 8633. Tax professionals who wish to file business returns complete Form 9041. This new e-file Application will combine the current individual and business applications to allow tax professionals to apply to file both individual income tax returns and business returns electronically. The paper Form 8633 will continue to be used for those participants who elect not to complete the new electronic e-file Application.

ERO Must Retain This Form — See Instructions
Do Not Submit This Form to the IRS Unless Requested To Do So

Purpose of Form

Form 8878 is not an application for an extension of time to file. Taxpayers must file the appropriate extension form listed in Part I of this form.

Use Form 8878 for the taxpayer to authorize the electronic return originator (ERO) to enter the taxpayer's personal identification number (PIN) as the taxpayer's signature on:

- The electronic application for an extension of time to file and
- The Electronic Funds Withdrawal Consent, if applicable.

However, for Form 4868 filers, complete Form 8878 only if the taxpayer will:

- Make an electronic funds withdrawal and
- Authorize the ERO to enter the taxpayer's PIN.

ERO Responsibilities

An ERO must provide Form 8878 to a taxpayer who wishes to authorize the ERO to enter his or her PIN as the taxpayer's signature. At the top of the form, enter the name(s) and social security number(s) of the taxpayer(s). Complete Part I of Form 8878 by entering the required information from the taxpayer's extension form. After the taxpayer completes Part II, enter the 14-digit Declaration Control Number (DCN) from the taxpayer's extension form in accordance with the requirements in Part I of Pub. 1346, Electronic Return File Specifications for Individual Income Tax Returns.

An ERO must provide Form 8878 for the taxpayer's review. This can be done in person or by sending Form 8878 to the taxpayer using the U.S. mail, a private delivery service, e-mail, or an Internet web site.

Taxpayer Responsibilities

Taxpayers have the following responsibilities: (a) to verify the accuracy of the prepared application for an extension of time to file, (b) to enter their self-selected PIN (five numbers other than all zeros) on Form 8878, (c) to sign and date Form 8878, and (d) to return the completed Form 8878 to the ERO by hand delivery, U.S. mail, private delivery service, or fax.

Important Notes for EROs

- Retain the completed Form 8878 for 3 years from the return due date or IRS received date, whichever is later. Do not send Form 8878 to the IRS unless requested to do so.
- If the software allows, header, Part I, and ERO firm name may be generated. The taxpayer must enter his or her PIN, signature, and date.
- Provide the taxpayer with a copy of the signed Form 8878 upon request.
- Provide the taxpayer with a corrected copy of Form 8878 if changes are made to the extension form (for example, based on taxpayer review).
- If married filing jointly, it is acceptable for one spouse to authorize the ERO to enter his or her self-selected PIN, and for the other spouse to enter his or her own PIN directly on the input screen. It is not acceptable for a taxpayer to select or enter the PIN of an absent spouse.
- If the taxpayer is making a payment by electronic funds withdrawal (Form 4868 or Form 2350 only), the ERO must enter the taxpayer's date of birth and prior year adjusted gross income amount from the taxpayer's originally filed tax return. This information will be required on the input screen. Do not use an amount from an amended return or a math error correction.
- See Pub. 1345A, Filing Season Supplement for Electronic Return Originators.

Purpose of Form

Form 8879 must be completed by the taxpayer and the electronic return originator (ERO) and retained by the ERO if:

- The taxpayer wants to authorize the ERO to enter the taxpayer’s personal identification number (PIN) as the taxpayer’s signature on the electronic income tax return, and if applicable, the Electronic Funds Withdrawal or
- The ERO is filing the return using the Practitioner PIN method even if the taxpayer(s) signs the return with his or her own PIN. The ERO must complete Part III.

Do not complete Form 8879 if both of the following apply:

- The ERO does not use the Practitioner PIN method, and
- The taxpayer (both taxpayers if filing a joint return) signs the return by entering his or her own PIN.

ERO Responsibilities

An ERO must provide Form 8879 to a taxpayer who wishes to authorize the ERO to enter his or her PIN as the taxpayer’s signature. At the top of the form, enter the name(s) and social security number(s) of the taxpayer(s). Complete Part I using the amounts (zeros may be entered, when appropriate) from the taxpayer’s 2002 tax return. In Part II, if the taxpayer is authorizing the ERO to enter his or her PIN, enter the ERO firm name on the authorization line, not the name of the individual preparing the return. After the taxpayer completes Part II, enter the 14-digit Declaration Control Number (DCN) from the tax return in accordance with the requirements in Part I of Pub. 1346, Electronic Return File Specifications for Individual Income Tax Returns.

An ERO must provide Form 8879 for the taxpayer’s review. This can be done in person or by sending Form 8879 to the taxpayer using the U.S. mail, a private delivery service, e-mail, or an Internet web site.

Form 8879 must be completed and signed before submission of the electronic return.

Taxpayer Responsibilities

Taxpayers have the following responsibilities: (a) to verify the accuracy of the prepared income tax return, (b) to check the appropriate box in Part II to authorize the ERO to enter their PIN or to do it themselves, (c) to indicate or verify their self-select PIN when authorizing the ERO to enter it (the PIN must be five numbers other than all zeros), (d) to sign and date Form 8879, and (e) to return the completed Form 8879 to the ERO by hand delivery, U.S. mail, private delivery service, or fax.

Important Notes for EROs

- Retain the completed Form 8879 for 3 years from the return due date or IRS received date, whichever is later. Do not send Form 8879 to the IRS unless requested to do so.
- Confirm the identity of the taxpayer(s). For additional guidance, see Pub. 1345, Handbook for Authorized e-file Providers of Individual Income Tax Returns.
- Enter, for the Authentication Record of the taxpayer’s electronically filed return, the taxpayer(s) date of birth and adjusted gross income from the taxpayer’s prior year originally filed return if you are not using the Practitioner PIN method. Do not use an amount from an amended return or a math error correction.
- Complete Part III only if you are filing the return using the Practitioner PIN method. You are not required to enter the taxpayer’s date of birth and prior year adjusted gross income for the Authentication Record of the electronically filed return.
- Enter the taxpayer’s self-selected PIN(s) on the input screen only if the taxpayer has authorized you to do so. If married filing jointly, it is acceptable for one spouse to authorize you to enter his or her self-selected PIN, and for the other spouse to enter his or her own PIN directly on the input screen. It is not acceptable for a taxpayer to select or enter the PIN of an absent spouse.
- A PIN signature replaces Form 8453, U.S. Individual Income Tax Declaration for an IRS e-file Return. However, do not use a PIN signature if you must use Form 8453 to send attachments to the IRS.
- Provide the taxpayer with a copy of the signed Form 8879 upon request.
- Provide the taxpayer with a corrected copy of the Form 8879 if changes are made to the return (for example, based on taxpayer review).

The address is in your tax forms package, or you can call the IRS toll-free at 1-800-829-1040.

The IRS will notify your electronic filer when they accept your return, usually within 48 hours. If your return wasn't accepted, the IRS will notify your electronic filer of the reasons for rejection. If it has been more than three weeks since the IRS accepted your return and you have not received your refund, you can call the IRS toll-free Tele-Tax return information number, 1-800-829-4477, to check the status of your refund. You will need to know the first social security number shown on your return, your filing status, and the exact amount of the refund you expect. Tele-Tax should give you the date for mailing or depositing your refund. You should receive your refund check within 30 days of the date given by Tele-Tax, or within one week of that date if you chose direct deposit. If you don't receive it by then, or if Tele-Tax does not give your refund information, call the IRS office at 1-800-829-1040.

If You Owe Tax

If your e-filed return has a balance due, you must pay the amount you owe by April 15, 2003. You may use the payment voucher, Form 1040-V, you will receive in the mail or you can obtain a payment voucher from your electronic filer. If you paid by electronic funds withdrawal (direct debit) or by credit card while e-filing your return through a tax professional or software, no voucher is needed. To use your credit card to pay by phone or Internet through a service provider, you may call, toll free, 1-800-2PAY-TAXSM (1-800-272-9829) or 1-888-PAY-1040SM (1-888-729-1040), or on the Web, visit www.officialpayments.com or www.PAY1040.com. You may use an American Express®Card, Discover Card®, MasterCard® card or VISA® card. The service providers, based on the amount you are paying, will charge a convenience fee. The fees may vary between the providers. You will be told what the fee is during the transaction and you will be given the option to either continue or end the transaction. If the IRS doesn't receive your payment by April 15, 2003, they will send you a notice that asks for full payment of the tax due, plus penalties and interest. If you can't pay the amount of tax you owe in full, please complete Form 9465, Installment Agreement Request, which can also be e-filed. You may also get a paper Form 9465 by calling 1-800-829-3676. Mail the paper form to the address in the form's instructions.

If You Need to Inquire About Your Electronic Funds Withdrawal Payment

You can call 1-888-353-4537, toll-free, to inquire about the status of an electronic funds withdrawal payment. General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of form. Generally, the amount by which you benefit from the discharge of indebtedness is included in your gross income. However, under certain circumstances described in section 108, you may exclude the amount of discharged indebtedness from your gross income. Unless you check the box on line 1d or make the election on line 5, the amount excluded from gross income reduces certain tax attributes either dollar for dollar or 33 1/3 cents per dollar (see below).

Use Part I of Form 982 to indicate why any amount received from the discharge of indebtedness should be excluded from gross income.

Use Part II to report your reduction of tax attributes. The reduction must be made in the following order:

- Any net operating loss (NOL) for the tax year of the discharge (and any NOL carryover to that year) (dollar for dollar);
- Any general business credit carryover to or from the tax year of the discharge (33 1/3 cents per dollar);
- Any minimum tax credit as of the beginning of the tax year immediately after the tax year of the discharge (33 1/3 cents per dollar);
- Any net capital loss for the tax year of the discharge (and any capital loss carryover to that tax year) (dollar for dollar);

- Basis of property (dollar for dollar);
- Any passive activity loss (dollar for dollar) and credit (33 1/3 cents per dollar) carryovers from the tax year of the discharge; and
- Any foreign tax credit carryover to or from the tax year of the discharge (33 1/3 cents per dollar).

Use Part III to exclude from gross income under section 1081(b) any amounts of income attributable to the transfer of property described in that section.

Definitions. A "title 11 case" is a case under title 11 of the United States Code (relating to bankruptcy), but only if you are under the jurisdiction of the court in the case and the discharge of indebtedness is granted by the court or is under a plan approved by the court.

In most cases, you do not need to file Form 2210. The IRS will figure any penalty you owe and send you a bill. File Form 2210 only if one or more boxes in Part I apply to you. If you do not need to file Form 2210, you still may use it to figure your penalty. Part I Reasons for Filing—If 1a, 1b, or 1c below applies to you, you may be able to lower or eliminate your penalty. But you must check the boxes that apply and file Form 2210 with your tax return. If 1d below applies to you, check that box and file Form 2210 with your tax return.

- 1 Check whichever boxes apply (if none apply, see the text above Part I and do not file Form 2210):
- a You request a waiver. In certain circumstances, the IRS will waive all or part of the penalty. See Waiver of Penalty on page 2 of the instructions.
 - b You use the annualized income installment method. If your income varied during the year, this method may reduce the amount of one or more required installments. See page 5 of the instructions.
 - c You had Federal income tax withheld from wages and, for estimated tax purposes, you treat the withheld tax as paid on the dates it was actually withheld, instead of in equal amounts on the payment due dates. See the instructions for line 23 on page 3.
 - d Your required annual payment (line 15 below) is based on your 2001 tax and you filed or are filing a joint return for either 2001 or 2002 but not for both years.

General Instructions

A Change To Note

For 2002, the standard mileage rate for using your vehicle to move to a new home is 13 cents a mile. Beginning in 2003, the standard mileage rate for using your vehicle to move to a new home is 12 cents a mile.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 3903 to figure your moving expense deduction for a move related to the start of work at a new principal place of work (workplace). If the new workplace is outside the United States or its possessions, you must be a U.S. citizen or resident alien to deduct your expenses.

If you qualify to deduct expenses for more than one move, use a separate Form 3903 for each move.

For more details, see Pub. 521, Moving Expenses.

Who May Deduct Moving Expenses

If you move to a new home because of a new principal workplace, you may be able to deduct your moving expenses whether you are self-employed or an employee. But you must meet both of the tests explained next.

Distance Test

Your new principal workplace must be at least 50 miles farther from your old home than your old workplace was. For example, if your old workplace was 3 miles from your old home, your new workplace must be at least 53 miles from that home. If you did not have an old workplace, your new workplace must be at least 50 miles from your old home. The distance between the two points is the shortest of the more commonly traveled routes between them.

To see if you meet the distance test, you can use the worksheet below.

Distance Test Worksheet

Keep a Copy for Your Records

Members of the armed forces may not have to meet this test. For details, see the instructions on the back of this form.

1. Enter the number of miles from your old home to your new workplace 1. _____ miles
2. Enter the number of miles from your old home to your old workplace 2. _____ miles
3. Subtract line 2 from line 1. If zero or less, enter -0- 3. _____ miles

Is line 3 at least 50 miles?

- Yes. You meet this test.
- No. You do not meet this test. You cannot deduct your moving expenses. Do not complete Form 3903.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 4255 to figure the increase in tax for the recapture of investment credit claimed.

Who Must Refigure the Investment Credit

Generally, you must refigure the investment credit and may have to recapture all or part of it if any of the following apply.

- You disposed of investment credit property before the end of 5 full years after the property was placed in service (recapture period).

- You changed the use of the property before the end of the recapture period so that it no longer qualifies as investment credit property.
- The business use of the property decreased before the end of the recapture period so that it no longer qualifies (in whole or in part) as investment credit property.
- Any building to which section 47(d) applies will no longer be a qualified rehabilitated building when placed in service.
- Any property to which section 48(a)(5) applies will no longer qualify as investment credit property when placed in service.
- Before the end of the recapture period, your proportionate interest was reduced by more than one-third in a partnership, S corporation, estate, or trust that allocated the cost or other basis of property to you for which you claimed a credit.

- You returned leased property (on which you claimed a credit) to the lessor before the end of the recapture period.
- A net increase in the amount of nonqualified nonrecourse financing occurred for any property to which section 49(a)(1) applied. For more details, see the instructions for line 10.

Exceptions to recapture. Recapture of the investment credit does not apply to the following.

- A transfer because of the death of the taxpayer.
- A transfer between spouses or incident to divorce under section 1041. However, a later disposition by the transferee is subject to recapture to the same extent as if the transferor had disposed of the property at the later date.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 4952 to figure the amount of investment interest expense you can deduct for 2002 and the amount you can carry forward to future years. Your investment interest expense deduction is limited to your net investment income.

For additional information, see Pub. 550, Investment Income and Expenses.

Who Must File

If you are an individual, estate, or a trust and you claim a deduction for investment interest expense, you must complete Form 4952 and attach it to your tax return.

Exception. You do not have to file Form 4952 if all of the following apply.

- Your investment interest expense is not more than your investment income from interest and ordinary dividends.
- You have no other deductible investment expenses.
- You have no disallowed investment interest expense from 2001.

Allocation of Interest Expense Under Temporary Regulations Section 1.163-8T

If you paid or accrued interest on a loan and used the loan proceeds for more than one purpose, you may have to allocate the interest. This is necessary because different rules apply to investment interest, personal interest, trade or business interest, home mortgage interest, and passive activity interest. See Pub. 535, Business Expenses.

Specific Instructions

Part I—Total Investment Interest Expense

Line 1

Enter the investment interest expense paid or accrued during the tax year, regardless of when you incurred the indebtedness.

Investment interest expense is interest paid or accrued on a loan or part of a loan that is allocable to property held for investment (as defined on page 2).

Include investment interest expense reported to you on Schedule K-1 from a partnership or an S corporation. Include amortization of bond premium on taxable bonds purchased after October 22, 1986, but before January 1, 1988, unless you elected to offset amortizable bond premium against the interest payments on the bond. A taxable bond is a bond on which the interest is includible in gross income.

Investment interest expense does not include any of the following:

- Home mortgage interest.
- Interest expense that is properly allocable to a passive activity. Generally, a passive activity is any business activity in which you do not materially participate and any rental activity. See the separate instructions for Form 8582, Passive Activity Loss Limitations, for details.
- Any interest expense that is capitalized, such as construction interest subject to section 263A.
- Interest expense related to tax-exempt interest income under section 265.
- Interest expense, disallowed under section 264, on indebtedness with respect to life insurance, endowment, or annuity contracts issued after June 8, 1997, even if the proceeds were used to purchase any property held for investment.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 8271 to report the tax shelter registration number the IRS assigns to certain tax shelters required to be registered under section 6111 ("registration-required tax shelters") and to report the name and identifying number of the tax shelter. This information must be reported even if the particular interest is producing net income for the filer of Form 8271. Use additional forms to report more than 10 tax shelter registration numbers.

Note: A tax shelter registration number does not indicate that the tax shelter or its claimed tax benefits have been reviewed, examined, or approved by the IRS.

Who Must File

Any person claiming or reporting any deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit, or reporting any income on any tax return from an interest purchased or otherwise acquired in a registration-required tax shelter must file Form 8271. If you are an investor in a partnership or an S corporation, look at item G, Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), or item C, Schedule K-1 (Form 1120S). If a tax shelter registration number or the words "Applied for" appear there, then the entity is a registration-required tax shelter. If the interest is purchased or otherwise acquired by a pass-through entity, both the pass-through entity and its partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries must file Form 8271.

A pass-through entity that is the registration-required tax shelter does not have to prepare Form 8271 and give copies to its partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries unless the pass-through entity itself has invested in a registration-required tax shelter.

In certain cases, a tax shelter that does not expect to reduce the cumulative tax liability of any investor during the 5-year period ending after the date the investment is first offered for sale may be considered a "projected income investment." Such a tax shelter will not have to register, and thus not have to furnish a tax shelter registration number to investors, unless and until it ceases to be a projected income investment. It is possible, therefore, that you may not be furnished a tax shelter registration number, and not have to report it, for several years after you purchase or otherwise acquire your interest in the tax shelter. If you are later furnished a tax shelter registration number because the tax shelter ceased to be a projected income investment, follow these instructions. However, you must file Form 8271 only for tax years ending on or after the date the tax shelter ceases to be a projected income investment.

Note: Even if you have an interest in a registration-required tax shelter, you do not have to file Form 8271 if you did not claim or report any deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit, or report any income on your tax return from an interest in the registration-required tax shelter. This could occur, for example, if for a particular year you are unable to claim any portion of a loss because of the passive activity loss limitations, and that loss is the only tax item reported to you from the shelter.

Filing Form 8271

Attach Form 8271 to any return on which a deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit is claimed or reported, or any income reported, from an interest in a registration-required tax shelter. These returns include applications for tentative refunds (Forms 1045 and 1139) and amended returns (Forms 1040X and 1120X).

Furnishing Copies of Form 8271 to Investors

A pass-through entity that has invested in a registration-required tax shelter must furnish copies of its Form 8271 to its partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries.

However, in the case where (a) the pass-through entity acquired at least a 50% interest in one tax year in a registered tax shelter (and in which it had not held an interest in a prior year), and (b) the investment would not meet the definition of a tax shelter immediately following the acquisition if it had been offered for sale at that time, the pass-through entity need not distribute copies of Form 8271 to its investors. The pass-through entity alone is required to prepare Form 8271 and include it with the entity tax return.

Penalty For Not Including Registration Number on Return

A $250 penalty will be charged for each failure to include a tax shelter registration number on a return on which it is required to be included unless the failure is due to reasonable cause.

Enter the social security number or employer identification number shown on the return to which this Form 8271 is attached.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Note: Some of the line numbers on the December 1988 and March 1991 revisions of Form 8609 differ from later revisions. In these cases, the line references that correspond to the 1988 or 1991 revisions, if different, are shown in parentheses in these instructions.

Purpose of Schedule

Schedule A (Form 8609) must be completed by the building owner each year of the 15-year compliance period, whether or not a credit is claimed for the tax year. For a building receiving separate allocations for the existing building and for the rehabilitation expenditures, a separate Schedule A must be completed for each credit claimed.

The building owner must attach Schedule A, the owner's copy of Form 8609, and Form 8586, Low-Income Housing Credit, to the owner's tax return. If the owner is a partnership, S corporation, estate, or trust (flow-through entity), the entity will complete and attach these forms to its return. If you are a partner, shareholder, or beneficiary in a flow-through entity that owns the building, Form 8586 is the only form needed to claim the credit.

Recapture of Credit

If the qualified basis of the building has decreased from the qualified basis at the close of the previous tax year, you may have to recapture parts of the credits allowed in previous years. See Form 8611, Recapture of Low-Income Housing Credit.

Specific Instructions

Item B. If you are an individual, enter your social security number. All others, enter your employer identification number.

Item C. Enter the building identification number from Part I, item E, of Form 8609.

Line 1. Generally, the eligible basis of a building is for its entire 15-year compliance period is the amount of eligible basis entered on Form 8609, line 7b (Part II, line 1b, on the 1988 and 1991 revisions).

Basis increases for buildings in certain high-cost areas. In order to increase the allocated credit for buildings in certain high-cost areas, the housing credit agency may increase the eligible basis of buildings located in these areas (after adjustments, if any, for Federal subsidies and grants). The agency may make this increase under the high-cost-area provisions of section 42(d)(5)(C).

The agency shows the increased percentage of the eligible basis in Part I, line 3b, of Form 8609. The eligible basis entered on Form 8609 should reflect the percentage increase.

If the agency used an earlier revision of Form 8609 that did not have line 3b in Part I to issue a 1990 credit allocation to which the high-cost-area provisions were applied, it should have notified you of the Part I percentage increase in a separate statement. Based on this statement, increase the eligible basis of the building reported in Part II of the Form 8609 you file.

Note: This increase cannot cause the credit on line 15 of Schedule A to exceed the credit amount allocated on line 1b, Part I of Form 8609.

Basis reductions. The amount of eligible basis entered on Form 8609 does not include the cost of land, the amount of any Federal grant received for the building during the first year of the credit period, or any portion of a building's adjusted basis for which an election was made prior to November 5, 1990, under section 167(k). Do not reduce the eligible basis on line 1 of Schedule A by the amounts of any Federal grants received after the first year of the credit period. The calculation for line 14 of Schedule A will reduce the credit by the amount of any Federal grants received during the compliance period that did not reduce the eligible basis during the first year of the credit period.

For more details on determining eligible basis, see the instructions for Form 8609, line 7b (Part II, line 1b, on the 1988 and 1991 revisions).

Line 2. Only the portion of the basis on line 1 attributable to the low-income rental units in the building at the close of the tax year qualifies for the credit. This is the smaller of (a) the percentage of low-income units to all residential rental units (the "unit percentage") or (b) the percentage of floor space of the low-income units to the floor space of all residential rental units (the "floor space percentage"). This percentage must be shown on line 2 as a decimal carried out to at least four places (e.g., 50% = .5000). Low-income units are units occupied by qualifying tenants, while residential rental units are all units, whether or not occupied.

Generally, a unit is not treated as a low-income unit unless it is suitable for occupancy and is used other than on a transient basis. Section 42(i)(3) provides for certain exceptions (e.g., units that provide

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Purpose of Form

Use this form if you must recapture part of the low-income housing credit you took in previous years because:

- The qualified basis of a building decreased from one year to the next, or
- You disposed of the building or an ownership interest in it, and you did not post a satisfactory bond or pledge eligible U.S. Treasury securities as collateral. For details on how to avoid recapture on a building disposition, see section 42(j)(6); Form 8693, Low-Income Housing Credit Disposition Bond; and Rev. Proc. 99-11, 1999-2 I.R.B. 14.

Note: If the decrease in qualified basis is because of a change in the amount for which you are financially at risk on the building, then you must first recalculate the amount of credit taken in prior years under section 42(k) before you calculate the recapture amount on this form.

To complete this form you will need copies of the following forms that you have filed:

Form 8586, Low-Income Housing Credit (and Form 3800, General Business Credit, if applicable); Form 8609, Low-Income Housing Credit Allocation Certification; Schedule A (Form 8609), Annual Statement; and Form 8611.

Note: Flow-through entities must give partners, shareholders, and beneficiaries the information that is reported in items C, D, E, and F of Form 8611.

Generally, recapture applies if:

- You dispose of a building or an ownership interest in it;
- There is a decrease in the qualified basis of the building from one year to the next; or
- The building no longer meets the minimum set-aside requirements of section 42(g)(1), the gross rent requirement of section 42(g)(2), or the other requirements for the units which are set aside.

However, recapture does not apply if:

- You disposed of the building or an ownership interest in it and you posted a satisfactory bond or pledged eligible U.S.

Treasury securities as collateral (for details, see section 42(j)(6); Form 8693; and Rev. Proc. 99-11);

- You disposed of an ownership interest in a building that you held through an electing large partnership;
- The decrease in qualified basis does not exceed the additions to qualified basis for which credits were allowable in years after the year the building was placed in service;
- You correct a noncompliance event within a reasonable period after it is discovered or should have been discovered;
- The credit did not reduce your tax liability (but you must adjust the allowable general business credit carryback and carryforward); or
- The qualified basis is reduced because of a casualty loss, provided the property is restored or replaced within a reasonable period.

Recordkeeping Requirements

To verify changes in qualified basis from year to year, you must keep, for 3 years after the 15-year compliance period ends, a copy of all Forms 8586, 8609, Schedule A (Form 8609), 8611, and 8693.

To qualify for the exclusion, the bonds must be series EE or I U.S. savings bonds issued after 1989 in your name, or, if you are married, they may be issued in your name and your spouse's name. Also, you must have been age 24 or older before the bonds were issued. A bond bought by a parent and issued in the name of his or her child under age 24 does not qualify for the exclusion by the parent or child.

Recordkeeping Requirements

Keep the following records to verify interest you exclude.

- Bills, receipts, canceled checks, or other documents showing you paid qualified higher education expenses in 2002.
- A written record of each post-1989 series EE or I bond that you cash. Your record must include the serial number, issue date, face value, and total redemption proceeds (principal and interest) of each bond. You may use Form 8818, Optional Form To Record Redemption of Series EE and I U.S. Savings Bonds Issued After 1989.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

Use Parts I, II, and III of Form 8824 to report each exchange of business or investment property for property of a like kind. Certain members of the executive branch of the Federal Government use Part IV to elect to defer gain on conflict-of-interest sales.

Multiple exchanges. If you made more than one like-kind exchange, you may file only a summary Form 8824 and attach your own statement showing all the information requested on Form 8824 for each exchange. Include your name and identifying number at the top of each page of the statement. On the summary Form 8824, enter only your name and identifying number, "Summary" on line 1, the total recognized gain from all exchanges on line 23, and the total basis of all like-kind property received on line 25.

When To File

If during the current tax year you transferred property to another party in a like-kind exchange, you must file Form 8824 with your tax return for that year. Also file Form 8824 for the 2 years following the year of a related party exchange (see Related party exchanges on page 3).

Like-Kind Exchanges

Generally, if you exchange business or investment property solely for business or investment property of a like kind, no gain or loss is recognized under section 1031. If, as part of the exchange, you also receive other (not like-kind) property or money, gain is recognized to the extent of the other property and money received, but a loss is not recognized.

Section 1031 does not apply to exchanges of inventory, stocks, bonds, notes, other securities or evidence of indebtedness, or certain other assets. See section 1031(a)(2).

Like-kind property. Properties are of like kind if they are of the same nature or character, even if they differ in grade or quality. Personal properties of a like class are like-kind properties. However, livestock of different sexes are not like-kind properties. Also, personal property used predominantly in the United States and personal property used predominantly outside the United States are not like-kind properties. See Pub. 544, Sales and Other Dispositions of Assets, for more details.

Real properties generally are of like kind, regardless of whether they are improved or unimproved. However, real property in the United States and real property outside the United States are not like-kind properties.

Deferred exchanges. A deferred exchange occurs when the property received in the exchange is not received at the same time as the transfer of the property given up. For a deferred exchange to qualify as like-kind, you must:

Application for Automatic Extension of Time
To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return

It's Convenient,
Safe, and Secure

IRS e-file is the IRS's electronic filing program. Now you can get an automatic extension of time to file your tax return by filing Form 4868 electronically. You will receive an electronic acknowledgment or confirmation number once you complete the transaction. Keep it with your records. Do not send in Form 4868 if you file electronically.

Complete Form 4868 to use as a worksheet. If you think you may owe tax when you file your return, you will need to estimate your total tax liability and subtract how much you have already paid (lines 4, 5, and 6 below).

If you think you may owe tax and wish to make a payment, you may pay by electronic funds withdrawal using option 1 or 2 below or you may pay by credit card using option 3.

1 E-file by Phone—February 13–April 15
Call toll free 1-888-796-1074

Anyone who filed a tax return for 2001 or 2000 can file Form 4868 by phone. The telephone system will accept extensions any time from February 13 through April 15, 2003, and your extension will be good through August 15, 2003. Filing by telephone is advantageous because it is free and you get a confirmation number.

If you wish to make a payment by electronic funds withdrawal you will be asked for the adjusted gross income (AGI) from your 2001 or 2000 tax return. Your AGI for these years is located on line 33 of your Form 1040, line 19 of your 1040A, line 4 of your 1040EZ, or line I of your TeleFile Tax Record. If you choose, you may also file your extension by phone and mail a payment to the address shown in the middle column on page 4.

2 E-file Using Your Personal Computer or Through a Tax Professional

Refer to your tax software package or tax preparer for ways to file electronically. Be sure to have a copy of last year's tax return — you will be asked to provide information from the return for taxpayer verification. If you wish to make a payment, you can pay by electronic funds withdrawal (see page 4) or send your payment to the address shown in the middle column on page 4.

3 E-file and Pay by Credit Card

You can get an extension if you pay part or all of your estimate of income tax due by using a credit card (American Express[®] Card, Discover[®] Card, MasterCard[®] card, or Visa[®] card). Your payment must be at least $1. You may pay by phone or over the Internet through one of the service providers listed below.

Each service provider will charge a convenience fee based on the amount of the tax payment you are making. Fees may vary between service providers. You will be told what the fee is during the transaction and will have the option to continue or cancel the transaction. You may also obtain the convenience fee by calling the service providers' automated customer service numbers or visiting their web sites. All calls are toll free. Do not add the convenience fee to your tax payment.

Form 709 or 709-A. Although an extension of time to file your income tax return also extends the time to file Form 709 or 709-A, you cannot make payments of the gift or GST tax with a credit card. To make a payment of the gift or GST tax, send a check or money order to the service center where the donor's income tax return will be filed. Enter "2002 Form 709" and the donor's name and social security number on the payment.
