Financial Products Seminar

Seminar Overview

This eight-day program is designed for auditors, managers and investigators responsible for auditing multinational companies, investment banking firms and international banks.

Objectives

The seminar defines complex financial instruments and identifies how they are used to abuse the tax system in different countries. The program also covers the financial theory associated with capital markets. After completing the Financial Products Seminar, you will be familiar with:

- Notional principal contracts
- Interest rate swaps
- Foreign currency swaps
- Complex debt instruments (structured notes)
- Hedging techniques
- Cross-border leasing
- Audit techniques

Who Should Attend and Eligibility Requirements

Auditors, managers and investigators responsible for conducting audits of multinational corporations.

The minimum requirements are:

- Have auditor or investigator experience
- Be fluent in English with minimum scores as follows:
ALIGU (both listening and reading) 80
British Council Acceptable Level
TOEFL 525
- Have health/accident insurance applicable in the United States for the duration of the course (short-term medical insurance is available in the United States for approximately US $100 per month)

Methodology

The course uses experiential methods concentrating on:

- Practical exercises
- Case studies

Materials

Students are provided with manuals, reference materials and case studies to use in the classroom and take home for future reference.

Participant Presentation

Participants are expected to make a ten-minute presentation during the first week of the course discussing the financial product issues in their country.

Participant Evaluation

A written evaluation is prepared for the sponsoring agency.

About Our Instructors

The instructors are revenue agents drawn from the Internal Revenue Service.

Session Fee

Participants should bring a check for the course fee:

IRS Training Fee — US $1,975

Fee includes: materials, administrative costs, award luncheon, and opening reception.

Hotel and Meal Expenses

Participants will need approximately US $1,800 for hotel and meal expenses. This figure is based on the 1999 U.S. Government per diem rate of US $150 per day, which is subject to change. All participants are required to stay at the selected hotel. Participants should indicate if they wish to share a room (if possible).

Financial Data

Participants should bring cash, check, or traveler checks to pay for the course.

Checks should be made payable to Internal Revenue Service.

The participant can pay for the fees, or the participant's sponsoring agency or an international organization such as the United Nations or the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) may pay the fees.
